Tubs o’ Hugs

This month we are donating to the Victim’s Advocacy Center in the District Attorney’s office. There are times when victims are to appear in court, but do not have the proper attire. (The court has very strict policies regarding dress code.).

The DA’s office provides these individuals with an outfit they can wear to court and thereafter keep to use on job interviews or in work settings.

Needed are petite sizes in women’s cardigans and blazers. For men, professional clothes and accessories like shoes, socks and undershirts are needed. These should be business/professional attire. Probably not as styled by Greg, below. Contact Kelsie or Greg for more information about donating that old tie you might have in the closet!

Volunteer! Email Sandra Ghormley at sghormley@otecc.com or sjgxmom@gmail.com or text her at 541-519-4050 to get connected.
