ROTARY TODAY

9-18-18

Program
CARE/coordinator Sheryln Roberts
Host: Rick Pullen

As the 2014 EOU President's Scholar, Sheryl Roberts completed her degree in anthropology/sociology after 21-years as a corporate travel agent. She now heads C.A.R.E., which stands for Community Access for Resources and Effectiveness that is modeled after a successful initiative in Umatilla County.

CYCLE OREGON LA GRANDE 2018

Twenty Rotarians/family members volunteered with Cycle Oregon at Pioneer Park Friday night the 15th at Pioneer Park. After a quick training on food handling and clean up, some members bussed the tables and recycled garbage while others dished-out grub or welcomed folks in the food line. The 1500+ bikers who were eager to pack in calories after a long day on the road.

Cycle Oregon managers and the cyclists were appreciative of the welcome, support and encouragement from happy Rotarians. Well done Rotarians: Nathan, Tucker, Spencer, Eric, Jeff, Joel, Craig, Michelle, Shane, Jim, Michael, Shawn, Rick, Sandra, and family members!

Tubs 'o Hugs

September and October is designated to support Mt. Emily Safe Center. Items collected benefit children and families who visit the Center. Stuffed animals, toys, toiletries, snack food items can be used to provide comfort and distraction for children who often have long hours at the Center.
