

Rotary 10-2-18

Wandering in, a bit addled, Jeff wonders if he is at the right meeting. Jim assures him, "It's Tuesday, noon. Welcome to Rotary!"

“Here is live from his three-month gig on his couch, back by popular demand, it’s Doyle Slater!”
Michael welcomes Doyle back to the club after recuperating from foot surgery.

An avid Gunsmoke fan, Doyle does his best impression of Festus. (This is his third cast/boot!)

“Get your red-hot dictionaries! Get your red-hot dictionaries!” Joel carts in another box to be labeled.

Jessy, an advocate of higher learning, carries his dictionaries aloft.

John, Braden and Rick, highly qualified label stickers, insert Rotary name labels in dictionaries that will be distributed to all third graders in the county.

Notice the difference in this picture of Heather and Jean doing the same job. Like a meal out, fellows, presentation makes all the difference.

Them 'thar dictionaries are safe when the sheriff is in the house. Boyd takes care of security for the dictionary labelling. Graham is awestruck.

“And then I scored another goal.” Maria takes her soccer seriously!

"I do, I do, I do believe in Spooks!" Jeri's Haunted House is ready to scare!

Newest Rotarian, Mona Williams Receives her red badge from Eric Valentine.

Jason receives his blue badge from president Joel.
