

Rotary 1-15-19

It's noon. It's Tuesday. It's Rotary, La Grande! Steve greets Stacey at the badge box.

“Tucker, remember we decided that you were in charge of the community clean-up effort.”
Kelly reminds Tucker who looks a little skeptical about how things went down at the last meeting.

Michael urges Deb to find some more speakers for noon meetings!

Jeff politely declines on a committee assignment.

“Better load up, boys, It’s committee day and you’re gonna need some energy!” Chris coaxes Dave and Graham to load their plates with formed meat (of some unknown origin), baked apples and a scoop of twice-baked and thrice re-heated potatoes.

“So, if you do this dance move, they think you are hip.” Jessy helps Rick with pop culture

“You mean like this?” Rick gets half the move. Tucker and Jessy are amused with half the effort.

Dr. Joe has a drinking problem. He's the only one with his own pitcher of water.

Planning Daddy Daughter, A Night in Wonderland, Eric is type cast as the Mad Hatter. Michelle, of course, is Alice!

And here is what Rotary is about, community-minded people enjoying working together to support and encourage good works in the county and beyond. James, Steve, Mike, Jessy and Heather discuss Foundation work ahead.

Shawn, Dale, Michele, Michele, and Chris work on the Your Service Committee.
