

Welcome to Rotary 2-19-19

She's early, she's mauve, she's smiling, she's Kelly!

Guest Justin Chin, 2nd right, talks with Tucker, Rick, Jessy and Shawn.

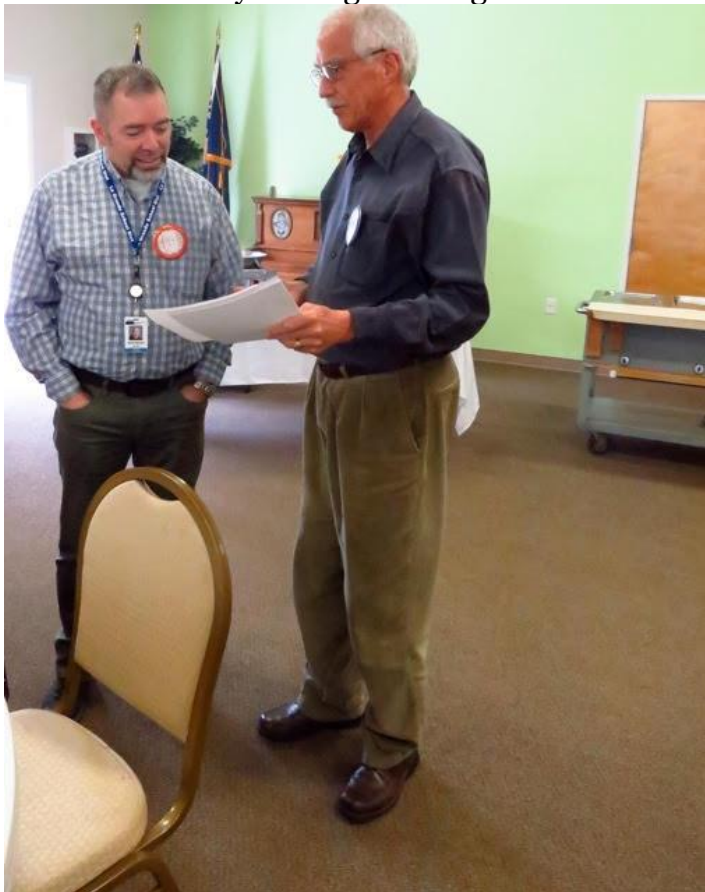

“My mom sewed this on my shirt this morning so I would always know who I am and where I work.” Robert is proud of his city shirt.

And, it is bill time. Doyle wonders where the Florida vacation discount is on his bill.

Brett's been away so long he's forgotten there were Rotary dues.

Craig explains to Michael a finance plan for paying off his debt.

“I lost 26 pounds on Jenny Craig!” Shawn tries to change the subject about dues.

Paperwork! Deb slots Tucker on the schedule for upcoming speakers. Maria completes text number 8,926 of her daily quota of 10,000.

“So I a student told me I looked like Brad Pitt—just older.” Brett relates an LHS story to an amused James and a mildly amused Robert.

Grant Darrow, over the top chimney sweep!
