

Rotary 3-26-19

Stacey recognizes Shawn in the bulletin, “So, you’re the program today? I didn’t know you had a job!”

Joel gets Spencer to sign the bill for the DFY luncheon coming up.

Spencer is fine with the paperwork until the part where it says that Spencer will be paying the tab.

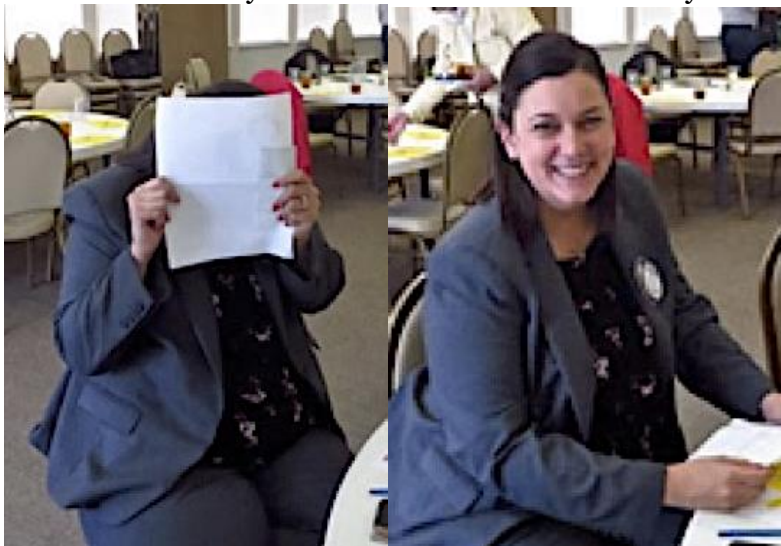

“Who’s gonna tell Joel that someone let the air out of his tires?” Shawn, Robert, Tucker and Jessie are in a somber moon.

Kelsie is not ready.

Now Kelsie is ready!

Haute cuisine is characterized by meticulous preparation and careful presentation of food, at a high price level. For Rotarians, this fits the bill.

James and Spencer can't wait for Joel to ring the bell.

The brag man." Gives us your brag, man." Jessy collects the fines.

Shawn warms up the crowd for his daughter.

