Seems like everyone is running for President!

Outgoing president Joel prepares for one of his last few meetings. Dave and Graham extol his record of a scandal-free administration.

Dave suggests to Jessy that he should consider placing his hat in the ring. Jean likes the campaign speech.

Heather hears the news and reacts to the prospect of “President Jessie Watson.” Michelle is amused—she knows better.

Doyle calculates what it will cost to push Jessie’s candidacy.

Nathan asks if Jessy is a good candidate for president. "President of what?" Michael asks.

“Don’t you think we need a woman president? How about that Michelle Long?” Evy asks Chris.

Rotarians are atwitter anticipating the change in administration for Rotary year FY 2019-20.

“If I am elected president,” Blue Mountain Outfitter, Jim Whitbeck said, “everyone gets MREs for dinner!”

Campaign treats! Coffee and dessert!
