

Rotary 7/23/19

Somewhere in the background you can hear a song playing:

*"That ol' man river
He don't say nothing
But he must know something
Cause he just keeps rolling
He keeps rolling along"*

Three Rotarians raising Cain/cane

“Yeah, I’m the president!” Michelle, greets Robert Strobe.

Lunch is delayed. Rotarians are getting restless...

Glenn is desperate. He reaches for where the entre should be—air ball.

“I’ll start you on cookies!” Our server delivers desert first. Shawn and Glenn are intrigued, but await the real food.

Nathan wonders if his reputation would be soured if he went for another cookie first. "Should I? What will people think? Maybe nobody will notice."

Nobody noticed, Nathan.

Food at last! One can only wonder what might have happened if the food had not arrived!

In his secret life, Dave is a Vaudeville legend. He does a soft shoe and tells a couple of chestnuts to warm up the crowd before awarding Tucker with the ceremonial burger paddle. Tucker is taking-on the duties of Head Chef, Summer Picnic.

Michelle explains the new motto of Rotary. "People of Action." Evidently, "Service above Self" didn't translate well into other languages.
