Rotary Lunch Meeting
We all have questions.

What are we signing up for Tucker? Will we be receiving more junk mail?

“What level are you on Jeff?” “Don’t bother me I just made 100 coins on Candy Crush!”

“You gave what to whom?” Deb asks a banker question.

“What magazine are Dave and Tim marketing?” Briana wants to know!

“Is it time to retire yet?” Dr. Joe is hopeful.

Who didn't get two pieces of pizza?

Does James just realize that Tim left the cottage cheese container empty?

Which Rotarian, when given the opportunity to pay monthly dues, reacts with glee?

Who, as a kid, always shook the packages and wanted to open their siblings presents? Jeri snoops on Tucker and Kelsie's presents.

What will be the most popular piece of clothing in these two Rotarians closets for years to come?

How many Rotarians does it take to make the projector bulb turn on? Trick question: Never enough!

“How many Finns does it take to fill a Sauna? Only one.” Sonja schools the Club on the private culture of Finland.
